

International Mountain Film Competition

Context

The Mountain Research Centre (CIMO), the School of Agriculture (ESA) of the Polytechnic Institute of Bragança (IPB), the Portuguese Society of Ecology (SPECO) and the European Association of Mountain Areas (Euromontana) promote the International Mountain Film Competition.

This competition is a Mountains 2016 event and is part of the SPECO 20 year's celebration: 20 years, 20 regions, 20 initiatives. Mountains 2016 is an international event promoting sustainable development in mountain areas based on science, knowledge and innovation.

The competition intends to publicly recognize and disseminate movies addressing mountains themes, including ecosystems, culture, products and new ways of promoting sustainable development in these systems.

Schedule

- By September 16, 2016: film submission
- By October 2016, 2016: film evaluation by the jury
- 3-7 October (Mountains 2016): announcement and dissemination of awarded movies

Categories

In this edition there will be no distinction of film categories. Films can be dedicated at any mountain related subject including biodiversity, sports, ethnography, architecture, food, among many others.

Authorship

Authors of all movies must be amateur. Movies from any country in the world are admitted to the competition. No fees apply to the submission of films.

Formats

Any film format is admitted to the competition. Film duration, however, must be smaller than 30 minutes.

Language

Films can be of any geographic origin and language. In the cases that originally movies are not in Portuguese, English or French, subtitling in one of these languages should be provided.

Awards

- Winner: Registration at Mountains 2016, housing for two people
- Runner-up: Registration at Mountains 2016, housing for two people

Dissemination

Awarded movies will be exhibited during Mountains 2016. Awarded and non-awarded movies can be exhibited in future events organized by CIMO/ESA/IPB.

Jury

Comprised of a member of CIMO, a member of IPB, a member of "Museu de Arte Contemporânea Graça Morais", a member of SPECO and a member of Euromontana.

Film submission

Films must be submitted to mountains2016@ipb.pt until September 16 through a large file transfer service (Signiant, WeTransfer, etc.).

